

LAZARUS HYMN

Sixth Tone

1-Rejoice, O Bethany! Through whom the dead live.	unto thee God hath come Why can it not be! for He is the Life.
2-Martha hath welcomed him As she saw him, she released	crying and weeping. her deep sorrow.
3-Swiftly she cried: "O, my Lord, Help me! my heart hath fainted	how compassionate Thou art! at the loss of my brother!"
4-He said: "Refrain from weeping and know that thy brother	and cease thy wailing, will soon rise from the dead."
5-Then toward the tomb went where he called unto Lazarus:	the faithful Redeemer "Rise, O buried one!"
6-Come, O sisters! The buried one came back to life	and see that wonder. so, give thanks to the beloved Redeemer
7-Unto thee, O Lord of creation, We are dead in our sins,	we fall down in awe. but, O Jesus, we live in thee.
